

Policy for Traffic Tickets Received While Operating Bridge House/Grace House Vehicles

Should a driver receive a traffic ticket while operating a Bridge House/Grace House vehicle, the company will pay for the first infraction.

Any subsequent tickets for moving violations received while driving company vehicles must be paid for by the employee. The employee will have ten days from the date of the ticket to make arrangements to reimburse the company.

Signature

Date